Regulations:

Riders must have participated in one of the youth barrel competitions listed in the competition locations section. On each weekend, riders can qualify for the right to enter St-Tite (depending on the results of the competitions). If a rider is already qualified in the 1st positions of the go, we take the following positions. The rider can register a single mount at St-Tite. When the rider is qualified, we go directly to the next position. During registration, the rider can register with the mount of their choice. If the rider is injured, we move on to the next person.

Online registration, the date is to be determined. Check the information during the summer on the website of the Festival Western St-Tite at: www.festivalwestern.com. All participants will pass in the slack, with the 8 best times passing on the Final on Sunday at 4:30pm.

Anyone who has made an entry and who does not show up for the competitions, must pay the registration fees for the class or classes concerned. Only medical proof can cancel these costs.

How Points Work:

At each qualifying weekend, competitors accumulate points according to the following system:

1. Participation points will be awarded for each weekend of competition. Eg. 10 points per participation per weekend.

Point Grid:

Position	Points	Participation Points	Total
1 st	100	10	110
2 nd	90	10	100
3 rd	80	10	90
4 th	70	10	80
5 th	60	10	70
6 th	50	10	60
7 th	40	10	50
8 th	30	10	40
9 th	20	10	30
10 th	10	10	20
11 th	0	10	10

The cumulative points will be available on the St-Tite Festival Western website as well as on the WildTime website.

How Rodeo Work and Breakdown by Class:

For the finals on Sunday, 4:30pm:

1. In all rodeo classes, we take the top 8 in the average.
2. In the pickup and exchange, we take the 8 best times of the 2 goes
3. In the poney express, we take the 6 best times of the 2 goes

There will be 2 goes for all disciplines except in the youth barrel racing class.

Important**

The points earned at the Canada Cup Finals count towards the current year's IPRA standings.
